

REMARKS

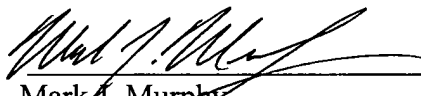

Upon review of the application and claims as allowed, Applicants realized a typographical error in both. In particular, the wavelength of 632.8 nm, had been juxtapositioned to state a wavelength of 623.8 nm. This was a mere typographical error. Accordingly, Applicants are correcting the application and claims herein to recite 632.8 nm.

It is respectfully requested that this amendment be entered and the claims allowed.

If any further fee is due for this amendment, please charge our deposit account 50/1039.

Favorable consideration is earnestly solicited.

Respectfully submitted,
